

Garibaldi's Company in Caprera.

Garibaldi Compendium of Caprera – La Maddalena

Friday, August 11th, 2017 from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m.

The creation of a forward-thinking agricultural company in the hostile granite rocks. From the harvests to the table of the general in his rugged daily life in Caprera. The Sardinian Museums Organization, on Friday, August 11th, 2017 at 8:00 p.m., in the mill at the Garibaldi Compendium of Caprera, which for the occasion will stay open until 11 p.m., inaugurates the exhibition “Garibaldi's Company in Caprera”.

On display there will be some illustrative panels depicting the business model's doings. In those years, the General agronomist used new, revolutionary methods for his time, which came about from his experience over long voyages around the world. For this occasion only, visiting the dispenser in the kitchen of the “Casa Bianca” is possible, as it will exclusively feature food products of that time period, bringing about all sorts of flavors, aromas and traditional recipes from Garibaldi's kitchen.
