

“Seeds of identity”

National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum “G.A. Sanna” in Sassari

Wednesday, September 27 at 5:30 p.m.

A fitting path into the history of Sardinian food history, with a focus on wine. Artifacts, excavated remains and modern laboratory tests allow us to reconstruct the practices linked to the knowledge and multi-dimensional flavors and the steps in the process of making old “recipes”.

On Wednesday, September 27th, 2017 at 5:30 p.m. in the conference hall of the National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum “Giovanni Antonio Sanna” in Sassari, the Sardinian Museums Organization, Graziano Caputa and Tomasina Massa, from the Professional Institute for Hotel Services and IPSAR – IPSEOA Food Services of Sassari, present a scientific-dissemination conference titled “Seeds of Identity”.
