

“Gremio degli Ortolani and the art of cultivating” Exhibition Show

Educational Workshops – learning to discover the world of nature and plants.

National Pinacoteca - Sassari

April 5th – May 8th, 2016

The Gremio degli Ortolani corporation, in collaboration with the Sardinian Museums Organization, has opened the "Gremio degli Ortolani and the art of cultivating" exhibition on the premises of Pinacoteca Mus'a al Canopoleno, in Sassari. The project, intended for primary and secondary schools, gets the pupils involved through the extraordinary path of nature, looking at how the seed develops and creates the fruits of the earth that then end up on our tables. The children, through this educational workshop – proceed with all the practices aimed at the direct knowledge of seedbeds, traditional work tools, fruits and vegetables.
