

“Amores. Stories of seduction, desire and eternal love in Turrus Libisonis”

Valentine’s Day at Antiquarium Turritano

via Ponte Romano, 99 – Porto Torres (SS)

Tuesday, February 14th, 2017

Amores. Stories of seduction, desire and eternal love in Turrus Libisonis. The Antiquarium Turritano in Porto Torres offers a themed experience and a theatric performance on the day dedicated to Saint Valentine. On Tuesday, February 14th, 2017 at 5 p.m., visitors will be guided through a route aimed at findings tied to the various realms of love, Eros and matrimony as per the findings on display at the Antiquarium and the nearby archeological area that wraps up at Orpheus’ house. The illustration of materials will alternate with readings from odes and narrations of myths stemming from the production of Latin literature.