At the National Archeological Museum of Cagliari on Valentine's Day, fall in love with art. On Tuesday, February 14th at 5:30 p.m. the Sardinian Museums Organization, in collaboration with CeDAC, offers a theatrical production of Love in Myths, based on Metamorphoses by Orvid, adapted and directed by Senio G. B. Dattena. The celebrated poem by Publius Ovidius Naso is brought to life in a picturesque working scene, embellished by shrines and findings offered by the Museum, as well as with original live musical score by Maurizio Serra on the accordion.
