“Plots and Sketches” for Museums of History. On Thursday, May 4th, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. at the National Archeological Museum of Cagliari in piazza Arsenale 1, Sardinian Museums Organization director Giovanna Damiani presents the thorough project of Museums of Stories. For the first time 8 museums from the MiBACT, which represent a noteworthy portion of Sardinian museums, will simultaneously share exhibitions and cultural initiatives focusing on the greater themes and works of scientific value, carried out through the specific collections of each museum. 4 central themes will be identifiable in this ambitious and captivating program that will involve the museums from the Sardinian Museums Organization and will occur over two months. The program kicks off with “Plots and Sketches” May 7th – June 25th, followed by “Food” July 2nd – September 24th, “Iron and Fire” October 1st – November 26th and “Gold” “Silver” December 3rd – February 25th 2018. The initiatives start on May 7th, 2017, as the first Sunday of the month, which allows for free entrance to the public for all state-run museums. It will be an extraordinary occasion to give life to a program, whether annual or ordinary, that’s capable of satisfying a cultural demand as well as feeding the curiosity and awareness of the greater public, what with it’s wide array of cultural proposals in the realms of science, education, promotion and identification. The Sardinian Museums Organization will lead the way at a regional level in terms of cultural appreciation until February 2018. The scheduled events are the first tangible sign of creation for an integrated regional museum system. With this occasion, Archeological Museum director Roberto Concas will present the small display titled Small Developers of Nuraghe.
