Making a catalog to make a network. On Thursday, May 18th at 4:30 p.m., in the conference hall at the National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum “Giovanni Antonio Sanna” of Sassari, via Roma 64, Sardinian Museums Organization director Giovanna Damiani presents the workshop “Plots in museums. Making a catalog to make a network”.

The event, presented within the Museums of Stories project for the first themed event on the calendar of “Plots and Sketches”, is organized in the realm of the collaboration between the Fine Arts Academy “M. Sironi” of Sassari and the Sardinian Museums Organization. Taking place on the International Day of Museums, the workshop is aimed both at experts and a wider range of people who will be exposed to story, technique and multimedia systems tied to cataloging, evaluating and communicating with regards to cultural and museum property.

Starting it all off is Sardinian Museums Organization director Giovanna Damiani with her contribution of “Cataloging heritage as a tool for awareness and conservation”.

Afterwards, we will hear from the head of Archeological operations at the Sanna Museum, Marcella Giorgio, as well as officials from the Cultural Property Service and Museum Systems of the Department of Public Education, Cultural Property, Information, Performance and Sport for Sardinia, Elisabetta Melis and Cristiano Melis. Also joining in are instructors of Cultural and Environmental Property from the Academy of Fine Arts “Mario Sironi” of Sassari, Giuseppina Manca di Mores, Davide Bini, Daniele Dore, Pietro Pirino and Roberto Satta.
