National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum "Giovanni Antonio Sanna" of Sassari.

Tuesday, July 18th, 2017 at 6:00 p.m.

Experience the museum with a captivating cultural occasion. On Tuesday, July 18th 2017 at 6 p.m., in the conference hall at the National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum "Giovanni Antonio Sanna" of Sassari, via Roma 64, the Sardinian Museums Organization presents a night dedicated to "Mont'e Prama among history, research and imagination". A dual must-see appointment with the aim of offering a wide range of cultural experiences through a scientific disclosure that allows for the reconstruction of past history. The evening's program calls for the conference held by Salvatore Rubino, professor at the University of Sassari, with the title of "From the archeological site to the bio-archeological lab: the case of Mont'e Prama". The scholar illustrates the results from the studies carried out on the burial grounds of Mont'e Prama and takes on themes tied to bio-archeology and DNA study.

Following this first appointment is the book presentation by Rodolfo Negri, from Rome's Università La Sapienza, "Slumber of heroes. The mystery of the ZIGANTES in Monte Prama and Stintino", where the "ancient investigator" Ernesto Marzio is called to Sardinia to resolve a mystery tied to the statues and the burial grounds at Mont'e Prama.
