

At dinner with Garibaldi

Getting to know the general, dietary preferences of Italy's unifier.

Giuseppe Garibaldi National Memorial Museum of Caprera – La Maddalena

Friday, August 4th, 2017 at 7:00 p.m.

Giuseppe Garibaldi, first general, the forerunner in history turned agronomist and man of simple habits and genuine flavor. The Sardinian Museums Organization has decided to dedicate an original night to the hero of the two worlds on Friday, August 4th, 2017 at 7 p.m. at the Giuseppe Garibaldi National Memorial Museum of Caprera, inviting tourists and visitors alike to participate in the initiative dedicated to food and dietary preferences with the title of “At dinner with Garibaldi. Getting to know the general, dietary preferences of Italy's unifier.”

The exhibition is set to show a series educational panels that provide an in-depth view into the daily life of the general and his family, with particular attention to their dietary habits.