Tuna captures art. Discovering the ancient Sardinian tradition of tuna fishing through the works from the 1900s. The Sardinian Museums Organization, in collaboration with MUT – The Museum of Tuna Fishing in Stintino, inaugurates on Saturday, August 5th, 2017 at 6 p.m., in the halls of the National Pinacoteca of Sassari, via Santa Caterina 4, the exhibition “The tuna knows”. Tuna and the common scene of tuna fishing, which depicts the capturing of it, plays a main role in the rituals and usages that inspire artists. At the center of the exposition is “Tuna Fishing” by Stanis Dessy and the paintings of other Sardinian artists who are both interested in and fascinated by this tradition.
