A glance towards the stars to find the route that gets you to food. The Sardinian Museums Organization, in collaboration with the Associazione Sardinia Romana – Anticae Viae, on Wednesday, August 9th, 2017 at 7:30 p.m. in the halls of the National Archeological Museum Antiquarium Turritano, via Ponte Romano, 99, Porto Torres, is organizing a conference by Gian Nicola Cabizza from the Turritano Astronomy Society, with the title of Between the stars and the sea. Feeding the Empire. Ahead of Saint Laurence's night, the re-enactors of the Associazione Sardinia Romana - Anticae Viae will unveil to us the hidden secrets of the holds of boats from the famous Turritano navicular boats, from carrying grain to wine, illustrating the know-how, transport methods and workmanship of food exchanges along the shore of the Mediterranean during the imperial age.
