

Behind the pint: history and stories about beer

National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum “G.A. Sanna” of Sassari

Friday, September 15th, 2017 at 6:30 p.m.

The production and consumption of beer in history between past and present. Craft, red, cask ale, chilled for the perfect companion alongside food. An original and unusual way of displaying the path of a precious drink at the museum. On Friday, September 15th, 2017 at 6:30 p.m., with the extended opening until 11:00 p.m., in the conference hall at the National Archeological and Ethnographic Museum “G.A. Sanna” of Sassari, Francesco Bellu, professional journalist and archeologist, presents the scientific-informative conference “Behind the pint: history and stories about beer”. The theme of beer in ancient history will be on display in a light and witty way to engage the public with original documents and the presentation of images that depict the birth of drinks all the way to our days.
